FROM DEAN CHAPMAN

February, 1995 Bar Exam Applications

Applications for the February, 1995 Illinois bar exam are available in the Registrar's office. The deadline for filing the application is November 1, 1994. Students applying for the February bar exam were not required to register as first-year students so please refer to the next Record item for information about the application.

Illinois Bar Registration for First-Year Students

First-year students who plan to take the Illinois bar exam when they graduate are required to file an application to register as a candidate for admission to practice law by March 1, 1995. The applications are now available in the Registrar's office. The fee for law student registration is $150; applications filed after March 1, 1995 are subject to an additional fee of $250. Incidentally, this first-year registration requirement did not apply to students who began law school in 1992 or earlier.

The application is comprehensive, to say the least, and requires you to provide a significant amount of background information, some of which may be difficult to remember or obtain. Use your best efforts to make your application as complete as possible by writing and requesting information from courts, agencies, universities, and other entities. It is imperative that you fully disclose all information requested in the application.

One document in the package is called "Certificate of Dean of Law School." We automatically send a completed Certificate to the bar examiners for every student who began their law studies this semester. Therefore please throw out the Certificate in your package when you get it so you won't ask us what to do with it later.

Some of the supporting documents must be notarized. Many of the faculty secretaries located on the seventh and eighth floors are notaries, I am a notary, and most of the Registrar's staff recently became notaries but will not have their notary stamps for a few weeks. We are all available to notarize documents. The notary must watch the individual sign the document so do not sign a document required to be notarized until you see the notary.

Students who plan to take an out-of-state bar exam should contact the bar examiners in the other state to determine if there is a registration requirement; you can obtain phone numbers of bar examiners from Kym

Denard in my office. If you have any questions about the application, you can contact me or call the Illinois Board of Bar Examiners, 217-522-5917.

Change in the Academic Regulations

The faculty amended the academic regulations by adding subsection (b) to § 8.6 of the Handbook; the amended section now reads as follows:

§8.6 Effect of Summer Session Enrollment

- (a) For Day Division Students: If a student on academic probation is eligible for a probationary semester and has not yet enrolled for such semester, the student may attend the summer session. The summer session will not be considered the student's probationary semester. The grades earned during the summer session will be averaged together with the grades earned during the probationary semester to determine if the student has met the 2.100 requirement of §8.5(b), but will not be averaged to determine if the 2.500 requirement of §8.5(f) is met.
- (b) For Evening Division Students: The grades earned during the summer session immediately preceding or immediately following the probationary semester will be averaged together with the grades earned during the probationary semester to determine if the student has met the 2.100 requirement of §8.5(b), but will not be averaged to determine if the 2.500 requirement of §8.5(f) is met. The summer session will not be considered the student's probationary semester.

Student Awards Luncheon

Invitations to the Student Awards Luncheon are being mailed this week to the students who earned the highest grade in each section of each class during the 1993-1994 academic year and to the recipients of various other academic awards. The Luncheon will be held at the Midland Hotel at 12 noon on Tuesday, September 27, 1994. The names of all students who will be mailed invitations is attached to this Record. If your name is on the list and you don't receive an invitation within a week, please email Kym Denard. If you were previously notified that you won an award and your name is not on the list, please contact me.

London Consortium

Chicago-Kent students who attend the London Consortium are considered Chicago-Kent students while attending the program in London and must pay tuition to Chicago-Kent at the regular law school rates. Brochures describing the program are available in Room 320.

Writing Contest Winner

Congratulations to Ellen Deranian who won $500 in the Nathan Burkan Memorial Writing Competition sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Advanced Research and Legal Drafting

There are seats available in several Advanced Research and Legal Drafting sections. 3L evening students and 2L day students should be enrolled in one of these courses unless enrolled in Law Review, Appellate Advocacy or the LADR program. If you are required to take one of these courses and are not already enrolled, you may enroll at this time, even though the deadline for adding a course has passed.

Student Directory and Local Address

Please stop by the Registrar's office to verify that your correct local address and telephone number are on file. If you don't want your name, address and phone number to appear in the Chicago-Kent Student Directory, the deadline for submitting the privacy form is Friday, September 16.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Help the Diversity Committee Help You

The diversity committee is a group of law school faculty, administrators, and students which works to improve the quality of student life for all Chicago-Kent students. The diversity of our community in gender, race, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, religion, abilities, and other matters, makes it essential that we work to develop and maintain mutual understanding, respect, and support. If you have any complaints of which we should be aware or any thoughts about ways in which the diversity committee can work to improve the quality of life at the law school, we invite you to communicate those thoughts to a member of the committee. The members are Profs. Joan Steinman (chair), Katharine Baker, Alberto Benitez, Marc Grinker, Gordon Hylton, Michele Richardson, and Assistant Dean of Students Julie Fenton. When student members have been named, their names will be published in The Record. Thank you.

Admissions Office Seeks Student Recruiters

The Admissions Office would like to develop a list of possible student recruiters for the Fall 1994 recruiting season. We're looking for enthusiastic, friendly, outgoing students (preferably second- and third-year students) who would like to represent the College of Law at various Law Days at colleges and universities both in the Chicago area and in other parts of the country. We're especially interested in current students who want to return to their undergraduate schools and/or current students who have friends or family to stay with in other cities--we generally cover mileage or airfare.

If you're interested, please stop by the Admissions Office (Room 230) to fill out an application. Thanks.

From Prof. Vivien Gross: Serving Our Society

As Director of SOS, I'd like to answer the big question on everyone's mind. What is SOS (Serving our Society)?

SOS is part of a growing national network of law school pro bono programs. In conjunction with Pro Bono Students Illinois, SOS serves as a valuable resource for Chicago-Kent students interested in obtaining volunteer public interest positions during law school, and even after law school.

SOS serves as a bridge between Chicago-Kent students and those groups and individuals doing important social and public interest work, both legal and non-legal, in our community. Through SOS, the law school and its students commit added time and support to those entities. In addition, through SOS, Chicago-Kent hopes to build and nurture an ethics of involvement and service among our students that will carry into their professional lives.

At this time, SOS is in the process of becoming computerized. Chicago-Kent will receive computer software enabling SOS to gain access to a statewide data-base of volunteer opportunities.

Although we've only been in existence since February 1994, SOS has already successfully assisted many students in finding rewarding volunteer experiences at such agencies as the Department of Children and Family Services and Pro Bono Advocates. Besides, SOS offers you many benefits. You not only gain worthwhile experience, you may meet interesting people and make valuable professional contacts. But most important, and really the true reason for SOS, you are making our community a better place by serving our society.

If you're interested, either in volunteering or learning more about public interest opportunities, please stop by the SOS office located in Room 686 and speak to one of the student counselors, Ms. Juli Gumina (3L) or Ms. Sharon Doherty (2L), or call 906-5089 to set up an appointment. We will even have a monthly newsletter for you to read. Office hours for the Fall Semester are as follows: Mondays 1:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.; Tuesdays 12:00 noon-2:00 p.m.; Wednesdays 2:30 p.m.-5:30 p.m. and Thursdays 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. We look forward to serving you.

Dear Dean Matasar

A special email I.D. has been created for your messages/complaints/concerns/praises about the law school. Send your email message to "DEARDEAN." You also are welcome to submit written messages if you prefer to do so; just place them in Dean Matasar's mailbox on the second floor.

At the end of June, Professor Abbott attended a meeting of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) trade law committee in Paris, France. This was the second joint meeting among government representatives and invited academicians to plan the future work program of the OECD in the fields of trade and investment. Professor Abbott then gave a report on the meeting and recent trade law developments at the Max-Planck-Institute for Comparative Public and International Law in Heidelberg, Germany. In August, Professor Abbott presented the First Report of International Law Association International Trade Law Committee (ITLC) at the 66th ILA Conference in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He is Co-Rapporteur for the ITLC. At the same conference, Professor Abbott delivered a paper on the place of regional integration arrangements in the World Trade Organization (WTO) system at a Workshop on the new WTO. The ITLC has asked him to convene a special session on the implementation of the WTO Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights at the headquarters of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) in Geneva, Switzerland in July, 1995. This session is to be attended by ITLC members, and officials of the WTO and WIPO.

Professor Hylton will write the biographical entries for Potter Palmer and William Rockefeller. And, Professor Hylton's comments on player-management relations issues were included in a feature story on the current baseball strike in the August 30 issue of the CHICAGO TRIBUNE. Professor Martin Malin was also quoted in that article.

Professor Vivien Gross is one of the law professors from around the country who has been invited to participate in the drafting of performance test questions for the California Bar Examination. The California Bar Exam is a 3-day exam containing 200 multiple choice questions, 6 one-hour essay questions and 2 three-hour performance questions.

CAREER SERVICES NEWS

Updated Alumnae/i Advisor Network Available

Whether you are defining your interests, looking for information on specific employers, or trying to network in Chicago and elsewhere, the Alumnae/i Advisor Network may be beneficial to you! The Alumnae/i Advisor Network is composed of alums who have volunteered to provide information to current students and other alumnae/i. Each volunteer forwarded a questionnaire to us which contains advice on networking and indicates whether the alum would be willing to have students contact them for further advice.

The questionnaires are indexed geographically and by practice area so students can identify alums who may provide the most helpful information. The binder with this exciting information is located on the shelves containing non-circulating resources in the Career Services Office. This summer we doubled the number of participating volunteers, so take another look even if you used the Network for prior job searches. It's an easy way to begin networking!

1994 Chicago Area Law Firm List

An alphabetical list of firms of four or more attorneys in the Chicago area, including practice areas and contact names, is now available in the Career Services Office! This list is a great resource on those small firms for which information is so scarce!

As you begin to put the list to work, please remember two caveats. First, although we update the list every August and doublecheck all entries, firms change rapidly and some move often. Second, do not say in a cover letter that you found a firm's name on this list. We include all firms that we can identify: the firms are not asked whether they would like to be included. Happy searching!

New Computer Policy

Due the demand for the laser printer in the Career Services Office, we have implemented a new computer use policy. Students' use of the computers in the office will be limited to 20 minutes when other people are waiting. Please sign in on the sheet provided by the computers indicating the time you arrived. If you wait more than twenty minutes, please let Dan Walsh or Gwen Johnson know. If you must relinquish use of the computer to another person, please sign the list again to put yourself back in line. Alumnae/i have priority because they do not have access to other computers in the building at which to compose; upon showing an alumnae/i I.D., alums may use the next available computer.

We ask that you please use other computers in the building for composing letters and resumes. Thank you for being considerate when other people are waiting to use the computers.

Third Year Students Interested in Litigation: Opportunities at Katten, Muchin & Zavis

Katten, Muchin & Zavis has informed us that the firm is interested in receiving resumes and cover letters from third-year students considering careers in litigation. Although the firm required a 20% minimum ranking for fall on-campus interviewing, we have been told they will consider candidates who fall slightly below that ranking for in-office screening interviews.

We recommend sending a resume and carefully tailored cover letter to Katten, Muchin as soon as possible if you are interested. Information about the firm can be found in the Career Services Office in the black binders of Fall On-Campus Recruiters.

Fall On-campus Recruiting Information

Thanks to all the participants for their continuing cooperation as we work on the program. We are entering data now and will generate interview schedules soon.

On September 13th, interview schedules for each participant will be available in the Career Services Office after noon. I.D.s will be required. Please pick up your own schedule--if you must send someone else, a written proxy is required.

A reminder to evening students: we will be here until 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, September 14th and 15th, so you may find that a convenient time to pick up your schedule.

Check the Bulletin Board Outside the Career Services Office and Read Your Email Daily

Information concerning changes and additions to the interview program will be posted on the bulletin board outside the Career Services Office.

If we need to communicate directly with you, we will do so through email. We will not phone you or leave notes on your locker--please read your email daily.

Department of Justice News!

We will be showing a twelve-minute videotape about the Justice Department in the Career Services Office on Wednesday and Thursday, September 7th and 8th, from 8:30 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. After the 8th, we will show the video by request during regular office hours.

A speaker from the Environmental and Natural Resources Division of the Department of Justice will be speaking on campus on Wednesday, September 7th at 10:30 a.m. in Room 170. Email Dan Walsh if you would like to attend!

The Department of Justice is seeking Asian/Pacific American law students to apply for entry-level attorney or summer law intern positions. The application procedure is the same as reported in the Fall On-Campus Packet, but Handout #21 has names of specific attorneys to contact for assistance and further information. Remember--the deadline for applying is September 23, 1994!

Department of the Interior, Solicitor's Honors Program

The Solicitor General of the Department of the Interior is seeking third-year law students to apply for a two-year Honors Program. Applications are due in Washington, D.C. by September 30th and interviews will be held at Northwestern Law School on October 17th and 18th. See Handout #6 for full details! Also see the information contained in "Handouts Concerning Special Opportunities" below.

Upcoming Programs:

Department of Justice/Environmental and Natural Resources Division Speaker

Joel Armstrong from the General Litigation Section of the Environmental and Natural Resources Division of the Department of Justice will be at Chicago-Kent on Wednesday, September 7, 1994 at 10:30 a.m. in Room 170 to speak about the work being done in the division. Email DWalsh if you would like to attend!

Public Defender's Office Informational Program

Second- and third-year students interested in applying to the Illinois Public Defender's Office are invited to attend an informational program on September 21st. This program replaces the Public Defender's participation in on-campus interviewing (they no longer interview on-campus at Chicago law schools). An attorney from the office will explain the new application procedures during this presentation.

Sign up to attend in the Career Services Office and mark your calendars for September 21st at either 3:00 p.m. or 5:00 p.m. in Room C25! The program will be videotaped and available for check-out for those who cannot attend.

A special note to first-year students: the videotape of this program will be available to you after November 1st!

Mock Interviews Still Available!

One of the best ways to prepare for interviews is to participate in a mock interview session. Career strategist Debbi Gutman will be visiting several Chicago law schools, including Chicago-Kent, to conduct mock interviews in September. Mock interviews will be held in the Career Services Office.

The half-hour sessions will include a videotaped mock interview, playback of the videotape, and a critique of the interview.

Dates for mock interviews are: Thursday, September 8, 1994; Friday, September 9; Monday, September 12; Tuesday, September 13; and Wednesday, September 14.

There are a limited number of mock interviews available; sign up soon! You must leave a resume with Gwen Johnson prior to the date of the interview. Please give 24-hour notice of any cancellation.

A Great Way to Prepare for Fall Interviewing: Attend Interviewing Tips from the Employer and Student Perspective

On Tuesday, September 13th, we'll be presenting a program to help you prepare for fall interviews. Attorneys from on-campus recruiting firms including Adler, Kaplan & Begy and Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue will share their perspectives and hints for making the most of your interviews. They will be joined by third year students, veterans of fall on-campus interviews, who will provide insights from the student perspective.

The program will be at 11:45 a.m. in Room 170 and 5:00 p.m. in Room 520 on September 13th--don't miss out on an excellent way to prepare for your interviews. A sign-up sheet is available in the Career Services Office.

The Big Picture: Job Search Strategies Beyond Fall On-Campus Interviewing

Keep your schedule free on Tuesday, September 20th and Tuesday, September 27th at 11:45 a.m. for our special program: The Big Picture: Job Search Strategies Beyond Fall On-Campus Interviewing. Recent graduates and current students will share with you their successful methods for finding summer or post-graduation jobs. Both programs will be in Room 510.

The session on September 20th will focus on the small- to medium-size firm market. On September 27th, we'll explore the government, public interest, and law-related job markets. Sign up to attend this program in the Career Services Office by September 10th--we'll see you at the program!

Two Special Programs for Evening Students!

Online Research Service

Reference librarians are available in Room 700, the large computer classroom on the seventh floor, to provide assistance with online research. This includes, but is not limited to, questions about formulating search queries for LEXIS and WESTLAW, locating appropriate database libraries and files to conduct research, and operating efficiently within the databases. We can also help with questions about work in WordPerfect and other applications on the computers, so please come and talk to us. There will be one librarian stationed in the classroom during scheduled hours, which are as follows:

NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS

Some Lab Guidelines

The following are some of the ways we try to keep our facilities available and in good condition for the Chicago-Kent community. Please try and follow them.

Students may only save their work to the A: or B: drive. Students may not save their work on the hard drive (C:) or any network drive.

Copying of software (except where specifically permitted) is not allowed and is in fact a violation of the law.

Food and drink are not permitted in any of the computer labs or concentration areas.

Email should not be used for mass mailings. If you have a message that you think is of general interest to the Chicago-Kent community there are other ways to distribute that information. (Some of them are The Record, broadcast messages, USENET discussion groups, and the Kentnet Classifieds.)

Students should log out from their accounts when they are done using the computers. Not only does the next student have to wonder if the machine is still in use but it keeps others from accessing your account, specifically your email.

As always, the Chicago-Kent Code of Conduct applies in addition to what is stated above.

Help from the Helpdesk: Room 700 Computer Lab

The Center for Law and Computers' HELPDESK, organized and run by CLASS, is again in operation and student volunteers are available periodically throughout the day to answer questions. At other times, EMAIL your questions about printing, dial-in access to KENTNET, WordPerfect, and more to "HELPDESK." The HELPDESK volunteers log in to pick up these messages throughout the day, the evening and on weekends.

LEXIS and WESTLAW questions about printing, downloading documents, and creating searches can be answered by the LEXIS and WESTLAW representatives listed in The Record each week.

There are also HELPDOCS, a series of printed instructions, on using our resources. These helpful instructions are placed in the lab in Room 700 and updated often to reflect new services and procedures.

Save Your File Often! Backup Your File Often!

Now is the time to get into good habits; remember to save your document often. You might think saving your files every 5 minutes is over-kill, but it is not. For the time it takes to hit 2 or 3 keys you can save yourself re-typing possible hours of typing. There are few things worse than losing the last 4 hours of changes to your document.

You should also keep a backup of your files on a second disk. Just save it on your first disk then swap disks in the floppy drive and save it again. There is a HELPDOC located in Lab 700 with more detailed instructions.

As always, label your disk and put your name on it. We can't return the disk to you if we don't know who's disk it is.

Network Access Through Xircoms

The Center for Law and Computers has made available Network Connection Packets that allow you to bring your own laptop into the building and connect it to Kentnet. The procedure for check-out is simple.

You MUST come to a quick training class before you will be allowed to check-out the packets from the Library Services Desk in the Library. These classes will familiarize you with the equipment and procedure necessary to connect your laptop to Kentnet. Any questions you have about the procedure will be answered. You must bring your laptop with you to the session.

After you complete the class you will be able to check-out the packets. The packets have everything needed - adapter, power supply, disk, and cable - to connect to Kentnet. Classes will be held in Lab 775 on the following dates and times (email Dominick Grillo (DGRILLO) if there are any questions):

Wednesday, September 7 12:00 p.m. - 12:50 p.m.

Thursday, September 8
Friday, September 9

5:00 p.m. - 5:50 p.m.
10:00 a.m. - 10:50 a.m.

CLASS

CLASS, the Computer Law Association, held its first meeting of the semester last week. CLASS members staff the Helpdesk in Lab 700 and are there to answer your computing questions; their schedule is posted on the board by the Helpdesk. CLASS members also answer the HELPDESK email account which is now in full coverage.

Where is WordPerfect 6.0 for Windows?

WordPerfect 6.0 for Windows will soon return. Many of you discovered that WordPerfect 6.0 for Windows did not print correctly. After many investigations and testings, we discovered that in order to provide reliable printing in Windows, specific settings within Windows must be installed. If students change any Windows settings on the student computer workstations at the law school, the workstation may not print documents. As soon as we reconfigure the necessary files, WordPerfect 6.0 for Windows will return. In the meantime, files that you worked on in WP6.0Win can be read by the DOS version of 6.0.

Two Representatives from each first-year section will be elected. Petitions are now available outside the offices of the Student Bar Association on the Concourse level (C-78).

PETITIONS AND CANDIDATE STATEMENTS MUST BE TURNED INTO THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION (C-78) NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9th AT 6:00 p.m.

Instructions and campaign rules will be attached to the petitions. Among other things, petitions may only be signed by students in your own section, and absolutely no campaigning over email is allowed.

ORGANIZATIONS

California Students Association

Those interested in practicing law in California should consider joining Chicago-Kent's California Students Association (CSA). The CSA will help identify job opportunities in California, help students contact and network with Chicago-Kent alumnae currently practicing in California, and keep students informed as to requirements to join the California bar. Interested students should email, Hiren Patel (HPATEL).

Commentator

Free classifieds? This month only, The Commentator introduces a classified advertising service that students will actually read. To kick off the project, each member of the Chicago-Kent community is allowed one concise and free classified, space permitting.

Please put your ad in our mailbox or under our door (C86). Classifieds must be on paper, legibly written or printed, and must identify the author -- especially when that name does not appear in the copy. The usual rules governing good taste, libel and lawfulness apply (See, e.g., the Soldier of Fortune cases on hitmen). Our deadline for all submissions is Sept. 23. Email Keith Picher (kpicher) if you have any questions.

Dean's Advisory Council

The Dean's Advisory Council is a forum unique to Chicago-Kent. Students personally bring their concerns about Chicago-Kent to the Dean, and the Dean "takes the school's pulse" by directly consulting with students. There are approximately four meetings per semester. All students may attend meetings, but Members are appointed by the Dean, and may vote (if one is called for).

Student group leaders should have received a letter in their organization mailboxes regarding the nomination of student group representatives to the Council. If not, contact Harry Althaus in the Dean's Office (HALTHAUS).

The Student Bar Association also nominates at-large members to the Council. Any student may apply for at-large membership. Applications are available outside the offices of the Student Bar Association on the Concourse level (C-78). The applications are brief, and instructions will be provided.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE AT THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION OFFICE (C-78) NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9th AT 6:00 p.m.

The Dean and the Student Bar Association encourage your participation: help make Chicago-Kent the best place it can be! For more information, contact Mark Gussin (MGUSSIN).

Kent Justice Foundation

Are you planning on getting a job in a public interest field next summer? What is a public interest type job, you may ask? It is any governmental agency such as the State's Attorney, or a legal services program such as Aids Legal Clinic. A lot of these types of jobs don't have funding to pay law students. KJF is a student run organization that raises money to fund students working in public interest fields in the summer. In order to qualify for a KJF Fellowship, you must participate in at least two fundraiser events. There are many opportunities throughout the year to come and help out. Participating in KJF requires only minor time commitments and it's a lot of fun!!! Please come to the KJF meeting Wednesday, September 7th in Room 520 at 3:00 p.m. There will be lots of snacks and drinks which will be provided for all. If anyone has any questions, please email BINDELIC.
